Trusting in His Word not the World
1 Peter 4:12-19

This epistle highlights three areas concerning suffering:

1) Suffering is guaranteed (verses 12-13)

John _____

Philippians _____

2) Three reasons why we face suffering in this world (verses 14-16)

We face suffering because we live in a world that has been

We face suffering because of our

We face suffering because we experience the consequences

3) Our suffering has a purpose (verses 17-19)

Psalm _____

1 Peter _____

The question then becomes; do you trust His Word this morning?
Or is your heart so worldly bound you're no heavenly good?

Upcoming Events

Senior Adult Ministry: Comfort Food and Fun

Do you like comfort food? How about fun? If you like either, or both, then we have a party for you! Join us on Monday, November 1 at 11:30 AM at The Fellowship in the Commons. Come and enjoy a variety of soups that will warm you up! And, as always, we will be playing some games and laughing together. If you would like to attend, bring a side dish, or if you have any questions, please contact Mark DeCoste (mark.decoste@thefellowshiponline.org / 781-262-3975).

Whole Life: November Service Day

Whole Life is hosting a November Service Day on Sunday, November 7. Come and assist the church's ministry to the homeless with meal prep (making sandwiches) to be delivered to the homeless, in concert with Lynn Ministries. Bring a friend or two! Hope to see you there! For more information, please contact Mark DeCoste (mark.decoste@thefellowshiponline.org / 781-262-3975). Sign up at www.fef.life.

Women's Ministry: Coffee and Charcuterie

On Saturday, November 13th, the Women's Ministry at The Fellowship will be offering a charcuterie class from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM. Participants will learn from a cheese expert the fine art of preparing and presenting cheese. Each participant will receive a mini-board and will take home a sampling from the presentation. In the end, we'll all partake in the beautiful board that our expert will prepare for us. The cost for this class is $25 (please register by October 31). Sign up at www.fef.life.
