Questions to Ask Yourself When Worshipping:

- 1. Have you been limiting your worship experience to Sundays or your devotional time?*
- 2. Do you allow disruptions in your routine to trigger a worship response or a flesh reaction?*
- 3. Are you in the habit of choosing to worship or do you worship only when you feel like it?*
- 4. Are you willing to get honest with God and listen to Him as he exposes your hidden and protected side?*
- 5. Do you keep your distance from God fearing that He may ask something of you that you don't want to do?*
- 6. Is the God that you worship revealed that way in the Bible or imagined and manufactured in your mind?*
- 7. When was the last time you experienced the "fear of the Lord"? Does your worship focus one-sidedly on comfortable aspects of God's character, such as mercy and love, without acknowledging His holiness and wrath?*
- 8. Do you spend time in God's Word seeking to discover God's intentions, desires, and plans for your life?*
- 9. Are you willing to surrender and stop postponing obedience to God today?*
