What Did We Talk about?

Week 1: Parents: Proverbs 1:1-9 Solomon Wrote the book of proverbs to share the Wisdom he gained from a life of searching what the wisest way to live is, and how to be successful. The first piece of advice he gives in this book is to Listen to you parents.

Week 2: Friends: Proverbs 13:20 "walk with the wise and become wise. For a companion of Fools suffers harm. The idea is that we need to be careful who we let have influence over us. We used this example of the Target. This Inner Circle is reserved for God and our Spouse and should be protected at all costs. The middle Circle is our Family and closest friends, the people we let have influence over us, and the outer circle is the circle of concern. People we care about, but know we should be careful not to let them influence us. We can be careful about the environment we spend time with these people in to ensure we can influence them positively, but protect ourselves from their influence.

Week 3 Dating: The Book of Ruth. Main Points; Ruth Listened to Her Mom, and your parents should have significant influence about when and who you date. Dating is a test to see if a person is worthy of being let into the circle of influence, and ultimately to be a spouse. Dating is not a destination, and we should not immediately let people get too close too fast, and to reiterate, listen to your parents. They know what they are talking about. They have already been through this.
