

Donor Privacy Policy & Donor's Bill of Rights

Christian HELP is devoted to preventing homelessness by helping people find jobs while providing for them materially and spiritually.

We are grateful for the support of our donors. Without their investment, we would not be able to provide life changing services to our clients who are experiencing unemployment and underemployment.

Donors to Christian HELP can expect their privacy to be protected. Personal information is never sold, traded or shared with anyone outside our organization.

Donors to Christian HELP have the right to remain anonymous. Donors wishing to remain anonymous need only notify us in writing or via email (jackiea@christianhelp.org) and we will refrain from including a donor's name in any of our public donor recognition lists.

Unless otherwise agreed upon by the donor and representatives of Christian HELP, all donations made will support the Annual General Operating Fund. However, donors to Christian HELP are entitled to know how their donation was spent. Requests need to be made in writing or via email (sara@christianhelp.org)

All donations made to Christian HELP will be acknowledged in a timely manner, and a receipt provided.

Donors to Christian HELP have the right to ask questions about programs, governance and finances and have them answered in a prompt manner.

Christian HELP publishes an annual report. It can be found on the home page of the Christian HELP website at www.christianhelp.org

Christian HELP has a profile with the Central Florida Foundation (mycfcf.org) and is a Gold-level GuideStar participant (guidestar.org).

These profiles are available at <http://cfcf.guidestar.org/NonprofitProfile.aspx?OrgId=2533> or <http://www.guidestar.org/profile/59-3107271>
