Dear Praying Friends,

August, 2020

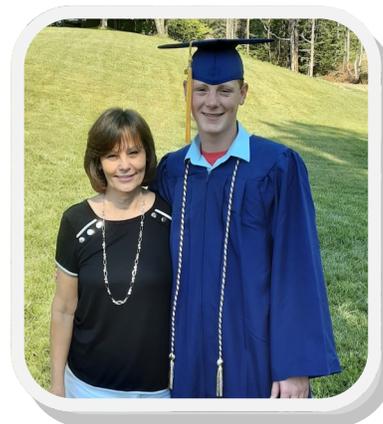

As our nation, states and cities struggle to reopen, the reservations are still closed and keeping a protective eye on their tribal members. As you may have heard, the Native Americans are more vulnerable to the virus because of many who have diabetes and other medical issues. There have been two deaths related with folks in the church just last week.

We were able to physically have church at Baptist Indian Chapel on June 7 and the following week. The second week, most everybody was attending. One of the men from Ferguson Baptist, Sanford Cooper, brought several bicycles he had refurbished to give to the folks at the chapel. The next week, I was informed that church was canceled again until further notice.

In mid May, I was able to travel to Tennessee to see my grandson, Joseph, graduate high school. I also enjoyed the celebration of the 14th birthdays of my twin grandsons, Jacob and Caleb. I must say that I enjoyed my time with them and just being grandma for a short while. I see them usually about once a year, sometimes twice.

This is my son, Steve, his wife Cassie and nine of their boys. One is away at Bible college and one more son due this month.

Faith Baptist and Mrs. Jane Stringer invited me the last weekend in June, to speak at their annual ladies' luncheon just south of Tucson, AZ. Since Becky Deford also knew several ladies there, she decided the trip might be good for her as well. We had a good time of fellowship on the way. Our time with the Stringer family, Joyce Jones, and all the Faith Baptist ladies who were able to come was definitely memorable. What a sweet time we had!

The message was from Psalm 84 with reference to the importance of church attendance and how we need encouragement from one another in our church family.

Thank you for your prayers on my behalf. Discouragement is such a part of what we all battle during these unusual times. Please be assured of my prayers for you as well. Col 3:16 “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.”

Titus 2:13 “Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of our great God and our Savior Jesus Christ:”

For His Glory,

Treasa Fox
