CONVERSATION

Elijah on Mount Carmel

1 KINGS 18

No rain had fallen for three years. There was no food to eat. God told Elijah: “Go to King Ahab. Tell him that I will send rain.”

King Ahab was not happy to see Elijah because Ahab worshiped the false god, Baal.

Elijah told King Ahab, “Summon all the people to Mount Carmel along with the leaders of the false god, Baal.” Then Elijah went up to Mount Carmel.

Elijah told the people they had to decide who was the one, true God. He told the leaders of Baal to build an altar to their god and ask him to burn it up. After they built their altar, they prayed to Baal all day, but nothing happened.

Elijah built an altar of 12 stones, put the sacrifice on it, and poured water over it three times. Then he prayed to God: “Answer me, God, so that these people will know that you are the only God. There is no one like you.” And God sent down fire and burned the whole altar!

When the people saw it, they fell facedown and said, “The Lord is God!” Elijah told Ahab to go eat because rain was coming.

Elijah bowed to the ground and prayed. Soon rain began to fall. Elijah ran down the mountain.
