CONVERSATION

Paul Wrote to a Church

BASED ON ACTS 18:1,4-11;
1 CORINTHIANS 1-4; 15:1-11

WEEKLY VERSE: Do those things that are pleasing to God. 1 John 3:22

LIFE POINT: People show love to God by doing what He says.

Paul was a missionary who traveled to many places to tell people about Jesus. He traveled to Corinth, a large city. Paul taught in the synagogue (a place where people go to pray and learn about God). He taught everyone he saw about Jesus. He stayed in the city for more than a year. Paul helped the people who listened and believed to know what God said to do.

Later, Paul was in another city. Paul heard that the people in the church in Corinth were arguing. Paul wrote a letter to the church in Corinth. He wanted to help them know what to do.

In his letter, Paul reminded the church how much God and Jesus loved them. Paul said that God and Jesus are more important than anything a man says.

“We each do our part of the work,” Paul wrote. “We work with God. God is the one who makes things happen.”

Paul wanted the people in the church to get along. He sent his friend Timothy to help the church remember all Paul taught and to remember the right things to do.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

Today’s Bible story teaches that people show love to God by doing what He says. Paul wrote a letter to the Corinthian church telling them to remember how God wanted them to live.

LIVE IT OUT

Remind your child that he can show love to God by doing what God says. Play a game about choices. Name some things your child may do and help him identify which are right choices and which are wrong choices.

LEVEL OF BIBLICAL LEARNING

God helps me do what He says.
