

Travelers on the Way: Prepared for Holiness
1 Peter 1:8-16

- I. Our amazing salvation fuels our inexpressible and glorious joy. (v. 8-9)
  - a. God does not call us to happiness, which is circumstantial at best.
  - b. God calls us to joy, which is rooted in the character and work of God.
  - c. 2 Corinthians 4:16-18

- II. Our prophesized salvation prepares us for our present situation. (v. 10-12)

- III. Our settled salvation produces a hope-filled holiness. (v. 13-16)
  - a. Set your hope fully by:
    - i. Preparing the mind for action
    - ii. Being sober-minded
  - b. Be holy by:
    - i. Not conforming to the patterns of this world
    - ii. Realizing who God is and who you are
