

1 Corinthians: Church for Broken People

“The Essential Gospel”

1 Corinthians 15:1-20

Concerning eternity, world religions offer a variety of options: soul sleep, annihilation, reincarnation, or absorption. The Christian idea of bodily resurrection is often rejected by philosophical dualism. What exactly do we believe about the body and eternity? Resurrection is not merely a nice idea. It is central to everything we hope and live for.

1. Foundation of the Gospel (vv.1, 2)

2. Content of the Gospel (vv.3-8)

3. Experience of the Gospel (vv.9-11)

4. No Resurrection: Theological Consequences (vv.12-15)

5. No Resurrection: Personal Consequences (vv.16-19)

6. Reassurance of the Truth (v.20)
