ENGAGING IN SPIRITUAL WARFARE IN A DARK WORLD

AUDITORIUM

Most believers recognize the encroachment of evil in the world in which we live. How do we maintain spiritual stability and missional passion when the presence of malevolence threatens to engulf us? This workshop will offer hope and encouragement as we enter the fray on mission with God.

Speaker: Dave Shive

Dave Shive has spent the past 48 years in full time ministry as a pastor, Christian school director, college professor, and missions advocate. Since taking “Perspectives on the World Christian Movement” in 1986, he has prioritized mission mobilization in all of his various ministries. This includes teaching in Perspectives classes around the country for the past 34 years. He regularly visits Vietnam to do leadership development and teach on missions to house church pastors as well as preaching and teaching in American churches. Since 2008, Dave and his wife Kathy have served as full time mission mobilizers. They are currently on staff with Frontier Ventures (formerly the U.S. Center for World Mission) in Pasadena, CA. While they mobilize anywhere that they are invited, their focus is on the northeast region of the US (Virginia through Maine). Dave and Kathy will celebrate their 53rd wedding anniversary in June 2021. They have lived in Catonsville, MD, for 24 years. They have three married children, Dan, Mike, and Becky and are the proud grandparents of 11 grandchildren.

EVANGELISM FOR NON-EVANGELISTS

CHAPEL

Evangelism has never been easy. But it seems to be getting more difficult in our troubled times. This workshop seeks to bolster confidence in the power of our message and offers insights for making outreach slightly less difficult.

Speaker: Randy Newman

Randy Newman is the Senior Fellow for Apologetics and Evangelism at The C. S. Lewis Institute in the Washington, DC area. He has taught at several evangelical seminaries including Patrick Henry College and is currently an adjunct faculty at Reformed Theological Seminary. After serving for over 30 years with Campus Crusade for Christ, he established Connection Points, a ministry to help Christians engage people's hearts the way Jesus did. Randy has written several books, including the award winning Questioning Evangelism and, more recently, Unlikely Converts, as well as numerous articles about evangelism and other ways our lives intertwine with God's creation. He and his wife Pam live in Annandale, VA and have three grown sons, two delightful daughters-in-law, and two stunningly adorable granddaughters. Randy blogs occasionally at connectionpoints.us.

SESSION:

What are a few key things I learned today?

Based on what I learned and heard from God, I plan to...

What has God been saying to me today?

“This is the Good News we carry as ambassadors to a foreign world: Jesus has reconciled us with a Father who loves us, adopts us into a new family, and forever gives us a home and a community. This is healing balm to the chronic loneliness of those so desperately longing to belong. We are now responsible as ambassadors to show and share this gospel with a lonely world that simply wants to come home.”
