Sign up below as an individual, family, with your friends, or get your whole Life Group in on it! It can be as simple or as extravagant as you want! (Plan on candy for at least 500 kids.) Thank you very much! Sunday, October 31 from 2pm-4pm.

- Overflow Weekend: Overflow is back for our students at Reality, November 19-21! Reality Students needs your help! It's been a year and a half since the last Overflow Weekend. Each small group will stay in host homes of people in our church. Our life groups cover the meals during the weekend for a small group. So what do you say? Are you in to provide meals for our amazing students during Overflow? Contact Jourdy at jourdy.persinger@reality.church if you are interested!

MAIN IDEA

With Is Curious

INTRODUCTION

Community has always been and it is not optional. In order to truly live out the life that God has designed for us, we need to be with others. This idea was formed before we were created. When we get together, beautiful things come out of it. As we learn to be with, we learn authenticity and belonging and that we were never meant for isolation.

WARM UP

- What is a thing that you have been curious about? (This could be a hobby, how something works, a location, etc.)

DISCUSSION

- When was the last time you really got to know someone?
- What curiosity is there in knowing someone else?
- Read 1 Peter 3:8
 - Do you often judge people before you get to know them?
- Read James 4:11-12
 - What is lost when you judge someone before getting to know them?
- How does the Gospel show inclusivity?
- Have you ever been “boxed in” before? Have you ever “boxed” someone else in?
 - Tell us about that experience.
- How can cynicism stop your curiosity?

APPLY IT

- Who is one person, outside of your life group, that you can meet with this week?
- What are some ways to get to know that person better?
- How can you become more curious?
- Pray this prayer a few times this week: “I pray that I can become more curious. That I can know others on a deeper level as I know you more, God. Lead me and guide me as I love others.”
