

Fawn, Georgia. I understand that as part of this trip my child will be working with various missions organizations in the Chattanooga area and give my permission for my child to be transported to and from these places.

We will be traveling by way of bus, 15 passenger vans, and in adult, parent, and/or youthworker vehicles.

I also give First-Centenary and Camp Lookout my permission to use photographs and/or video of my child for publicity and promotional purposes.

In case of an accident or emergency, I give permission for my child to be treated by a duly licensed physician of an adult / youthworker's choosing.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

MISSION WEEK

CAMP LOOKOUT

A Place Set Apart!

JUNE 6-10, 2022

Middle School Mission Week at Camp Lookout is an opportunity for Middle School students to participate in meaningful service projects while simultaneously enjoying an activity packed week at camp!

WORK PROJECTS:

Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday each camper will be assigned to a work project. Some projects are on-site at Camp Lookout while others are off-site in various locations. Each person will spend two days working away from camp and one day at an on-site project. Each work team will have adult supervision.

EVENING ACTIVITIES:

In the evenings, the campers get to choose an activity. These activities have been determined to be appropriate for the designated age level.

Campers can choose any of the options in their camp activity list.

ACTIVITY LIST:

- Hiking (off-site)
- Caving
- Climbing Wall
- Archery
- Mountain Biking
- Full Ropes Course
- Frisbee Golf and Game Room
- Lake Paddling
- Swimming
- & more!
