

SERMON NOTES

---

Date: April 26, 2020

Series: Anchored

Title: Anchored for Good

Text: Hebrews 12:28-13:6

Big Idea: Being anchored to God's unshakable promises in Christ means that we can offer ourselves as living sacrifices to him in any storm.

---

APPLICATION GUIDE

---

DISCUSS

How does the kingdom of God differ from the kingdoms of men (Hebrews 12:28; cf. Daniel 2:44)?

Why can Christians be confident that the kingdom they are receiving cannot be shaken (Psalm 18:2; 93:1; Daniel 7:13-14)?

How can the promise of receiving a kingdom like this influence the daily life of a believer (Hebrews 12:28; cf. 2 Peter 3:8-13)?

APPLY

What does it mean to worship God with reverence and awe? How can you cultivate these attitudes in your own heart?

How is brotherly love for one another a reflection of the gospel? List one way you can show this kind of love to a fellow Christian today.

How can you show hospitality toward people in your neighborhood or circle of relationship?

Think about the prevailing attitudes toward marriage in our culture today. How can you show esteem for biblical marriage God desires?

How can you express your sympathy and support for believers in prison or those who are persecuted?

How does the love of money and possessions tend to grab hold of your heart, and how can you learn to be content (cf. Philippians 4:12)?

COMMIT

Choose one of the seven habits discussed in this week's sermon and make it a matter of prayer and personal application (gratitude, worship, love, hospitality, sympathy, purity, contentment).

For Further Study: Read through Hebrews 13:7-19 and identify other habits you can develop.