

Pastor Rob Hartwell
July 17, 2022

²²Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.
²³They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:22-23 (New International Version)

Context:

1. _____ wrote the book of Lamentations as a poetic _____.
2. A lament grieves over sin and its _____. This lament is over Judah's sin of failing to worship God and follow His commandments.
3. Spoken to the people of the Southern Kingdom (of Judah) before the _____ of Jerusalem and the destruction of the Temple by the Babylonians.
4. Our Pop Verse is the only _____ part of the book.

Clarity:

5. Lamentations teaches us to rightly view our _____ and mourn over _____ and its consequences.
6. Lamentations also teaches that amid the greatest sorrow is the promise of God's _____.
7. Historically, the Church laments at Jesus' death on the cross. We consider our sin that brought Him there and the terrible _____ of His death. We also rejoice in the new life He gives. It is Good Friday in the new life He brings.

Commitment:

8. What sin or injustice should we _____?
9. Do you see every morning as an opportunity to receive God's _____?

1. Jeremiah, Lament 2. Consequences 3. Siege 4. Positive 5. Condition, Sin 6. Mercy 7. Agony
8. Lament 9. Mercy