MATTHEW 5

Draw lines to fill in what Dee and Cy are saying.

Why? I beat them,
didn't I? That means I'm a better speller than they are.

Dee, how do you spell
"humility"?

Easy ...
h-u-m-i-l-e-t-y.

I think you
need to practice
spelling it and showing it!

Don't you think it's wrong to brag about winning—while the other kids are still around?

Dee's attitude shows that she wants to honor
God / her friends / herself / her school

Describe a time when you or a friend acted like Dee did in this cartoon.

How to Build Character? What is Character?

Disciple
Zone

To make an anthill, ants pile up thousands of tiny pieces of dirt and sand. Below the ground, ants build many hidden tunnels and storage areas.

Your character is like an anthill. "Character" describes who you really are, the person you choose to be. You build your character through thousands of choices. Outside, everyone can see your attitudes and actions (your reputation). Inside, only you and God know about your hidden thoughts and dreams.

Draw lines to match each good character trait (BLUE) with its opposite trait (RED).
