

Senior Pastor Steve Uppal retains oversight of all church matters, but he works with and is accountable to the Apostolic team, Senior Leadership team and the Trustees.

The role of the Apostolic Team is to lead and oversee the Movement, the family of churches and ministries growing relationally around All Nations.

The role of the Senior Leadership Team is to lead and oversee all aspects of All Nations Church, following the guidance of the Apostolic team.

All Nations Church operates through a company limited by guarantee which is a registered charity, "All Nations Christian Centre (Wolverhampton)" number 1123880. All Nations Movement is a charitable incorporated organisation registered with the Charity Commission under number 1183285.

The role of the Trustees Team is to oversee the legal and financial aspects. The trustees are mostly non-executive but the Senior Pastor is executive chair. The trustees serve the vision of the Apostolic and Leadership teams and follow their direction. In the case of any apparent conflict between legal requirements and the direction of the leadership the two will share wisdom openly and prayerfully until the position is resolved. The trustees meet on a regular basis to oversee all financial and legal matters concerning All Nations. The trustees of All Nations Christian Centre (Wolverhampton) are Chris Green, Angela Foster, Israel Moyo and Steve Uppal (chair). The trustees of All Nations Movement are Angela Foster, Rick Kaul, Becky Murray, Steve Uppal (chair) and Clive Urquhart. Each team has a mix of relevant skills and experience.

The latest accounts filed with the Charity Commission and Companies House are available.