Big Idea: For a woman to walk in her own strength, she must consent to being fully and completely _____.

Genesis 2:18 ~ And Jehovah God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a _____ for him.

The Hebrew words for help meet are Ezer Kenegdo

Ezer: help, succor, one who helps

A better translation might be _____

When God is needed _____, he refers to himself as an ezer. One who rescues, one who saves, one who is _____.

For a woman to walk in a strength all her own, she must consent to being _____ and _____ known.

There are three ways a woman does this:

1. She is _____
2. She is _____
3. She is _____

All these things, when coming from a woman who is walking with God, are wrapped with beauty, grace, and love.

Characteristics of a woman who is real:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Characteristics of a woman who is relational:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Characteristics of a woman who is resolute:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Challenge:

How are you walking, acting, verbing, in ways that offer God's strength to the world, as a woman?

Where are you real, relational, and resolute?

Where could you use some encouragement?

Remember: For a woman to walk in a strength all her own, she must consent to being fully and completely known.
