

Luke 2:10-14 "But the angel reassured them, saying, 'Don't be afraid, for I have come to bring you good news, the most joyous news the world has ever heard! And it is for everyone everywhere! For today in Bethlehem a rescuer was born for you. He is the Lord Yahweh, the Messiah. You will recognize him by this miraculous sign: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in the feeding trough!' Then all at once in the night sky, a vast number of glorious angels appeared, the very armies of heaven! And they all praised God, singing: 'Glory to God in the highest realms of heaven! For there is peace and a good hope given to the sons of men." (TPT)

I _____ and had faith that Jesus was going to get me to heaven, but I had not _____ the SO MUCH MORE.

Have you accepted the gift of Jesus – his death on the cross and trusting Him to bring you into heaven? That's the first step.

What makes it hard for you to accept the gift of mercy? Is it past mistakes and regrets?

Of healing? Are you feeling unworthy?

Of provision? Have you dug yourself into a hole of debt?

Of freedom? Do you feel that you deserve to be in the chains you are in?

What next step can you take in accepting the gift of Jesus and all that means?

Do you need to call for someone to pray with you?

Do you need to get in a group of supportive Christian friends?

Do you need to turn away from your past and look to the future?

Do you need to be filled with the Holy Spirit?

If you want to have _____ to the SO MUCH MORE, you must accept it as a _____.
