In an attempt to make summer camp the best that it can be, we need everyone to agree to participate in all activities and abide by the camp rules. Please read this together (camper and parent) and sign in the appropriate places.

While attending Camp at Jan-Kay Ranch, I understand:

- There will be in-depth Bible studies that are designed to help the camper grow in his/her spiritual life.
- There will be physical activities in the form of games or competitive activities.
- That the following items are prohibited and will be confiscated if found: phones, laptops, tablets, game systems, other electronic devices, lighters, matches, knives, or weapons of any kind.
- Confiscated items will be handed over to a leader from my church, to be returned at their discretion.
- I will not be allowed to use the phone for any reason. An adult leader will call my parents in case of an emergency.

I understand that modest dress is required. Following are some examples:

- T-shirts with offensive language or advertisements will not be permitted. This includes foul expressions, alcohol, tobacco ads, and the like.
- Swimwear is only to be worn to and from the pool and in the pool area.
- BOYS are to wear shirts at all times (except when at the pool area).
- GIRL'S swimwear should be one piece or two piece that covers the midriff area (front and back).
- Swimwear that does not meet this requirement is to be covered by a dark colored t-shirt at all times.
