

CLEAN

A NATIONAL
DAY OF HUMILITY

Remember. Repent. Return.

WHAT IS CLEAN?

The world calls it “social distancing”, God calls it separation. We call it sanitation, God calls it consecration. We’re washing our hands, but God wants clean hearts. What would happen if Christians all over the nation went low and said like the prophet Isaiah, “Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips.”

Join us on Sunday, March 29, as we are gathering online with Christian leaders across the nation to CLEAN, A National Day of Humility, as we seek the righteousness of God. Biblically, we see that in the ancient days of crisis, spiritual leaders were given the responsibility to lead the nation in mourning, lament, and a return to the Lord. In the midst of this global COVID-19 crisis, we do not feel that the invitation to “weep between the porch and the altar” has passed. Through online engagement in our own cities and homes, we are inviting believers into six hours of being washed in the water of the Word through oral Bible reading, three hours of repentance, and three hours of worship.

As a result, we are structuring this day of humility around Nehemiah 9, during which the Jews were admonished to:

- Fast in humility.
- Confess their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.
- Read from the Book of the Law (public reading of the Word).
- Worship.

Join us live on Facebook at @civilrighteousness on 3/29 from 12pm EST to 12am EST.

We believe that our God will do exceedingly above and beyond all that we can ask or imagine according to the power that is at work within us. The nations of the earth have been brought to their knees by this virus. It’s time for God’s people to CLEAN.

Weeping for Clean Hearts,
Pastor Jonathan Tremaine Thomas

REGISTER FREE

