

The Lamp of the Lord | Ps. 18:28

I love lamps, they bring light to any dark corner; they come in every shape and size, they come in every texture and color. You can hang them or set them on a table, you can plug them in, or even use the sun to charge their batteries because, in the end, lamps were created to bring us light in the darkness.

In Psalm 18:28 David states, “For You cause my lamp to be lighted and to shine; The Lord my God illumines my darkness”.

It is God himself who allows the light of His Holy Spirit to dwell within us. God is Light (1John 1:5). In the beginning, God said in Genesis 1, “Let there be light”; and there was light. God saw that the light was good, pleasing, and useful. He affirmed and sustained it, and separated the light from the darkness.

Jesus called himself the “Light of the World” in John 8:12.

Even the Holy Spirit, in His revelation to John on the island of Patmos, reveals that in the future when we inhabit the new Jerusalem, there will be no need of the sun or the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God will illuminate it. The Lamb is the Light (Rev.21:23).

Thank you, Father, for igniting the light within me. Shine Jesus shine, through the broken places in my life. I humbly ask for the supernatural light of your Holy Spirit to burn bright and illuminate the darkness around me. You are the source of my power. You are the source of all light. You dwell in unapproachable light. You lit the world with your glory when you sent your only begotten son to earth to dwell among us.

Like Daniel, may it be said of us; I have heard of you, the Spirit of God (is) in you, and (that) light and illumination, insight and extraordinary wisdom have been found in you. (Daniel 5:14)

That is my prayer today O God. As a lamp Lord, shine through me to the world.
Lord, thank you for their invention. In Jesus' name I pray.
