

Week of August 10—August 16

Buck Creek Family,

I am burdened for our public schools. Our educators have new burdens to face this year. "A and B days," "virtual classroom," "sanitize the desks," "wait a few minutes for the disinfectant to clean the bathrooms," "keep your hands washed." And think of the children. How are they going to view school with all the weird rules?

What can Buck Creek do to help bring a bit of peace to one of our local schools? How can we show Christ-like kindness to our educators and students? How can we let them know that they are not alone? How can we portray the peace of Christ to them?

Please pray that we can find the answers to these questions. If you know of some ways to assist, please contact us. Together we can be salt and light to our world who needs us during this time.

Worship Service 10:30AM:

- For our brothers and sisters who are not able/ready/available to join the crowds, know that we love you and totally understand. Your safety is our concern. We will continue to live stream our services on Facebook, YouTube, our church app and website so you can worship with us in spirit.

- If you are experiencing any symptoms of any illness or you have been around anyone with symptoms of illness, if you have been tested for COVID and waiting on results or have tested positive for COVID, if you've been around anyone who has COVID please continue to enjoy our services online.

- The gym will be open for families, and the coffee shop will be open for seniors who want more room and less crowds. The worship service will be live streamed in the gym so you will worship along with those in the sanctuary.

Announcements:

- September 13, 2020 News #1: New Series "The Good Book" a churchwide renewal. More details to come.

- Online Resources. We want to provide online resources for you and families during this time of staying-at-home. Sign up online on our app to RightNow Media. It is free.

- Wednesday Nights we are studying the beliefs of Buck Creek Baptist Church as we go through our statement of faith. Past messages are online at buckcreekbc.com.
