Elders' Newsletter

The Church (Universal) and our local church, Grace Harbor, is an interesting place. It is full of all sorts of people. This is both wonderful and challenging. It's delightful to see a people united under the Gospel of Jesus Christ yet assembling such a diverse group requires the very character of Christ to address the many issues that arise in such a gathering.

In our passage today, Philemon 4-7, Paul is addressing Philemon; a man of Christian character that Paul found both useful and refreshing to himself and to the church that Philemon was a member. It's the nature of this Christlike character that we want to look at together Sunday that made Philemon useful to his Master – Jesus Christ.

I will bring a message titled, "Christlike Character – Useful to the Master" as we learn that: Philemon was useful to his Master Jesus because of his faith in the Lord Jesus, his love for all the saints, his affective fellowship, and his refreshing influence. May the Lord bless you as we gather!
