Elders' Newsletter

True Value, Alaska Airlines, GCI, and McDonald's are all very recognizable brands here in Sitka. No doubt reading these labels brings up certain value judgements in your mind (past experiences whether positive or negative). Marketing agents for businesses like these are very concerned about how they are perceived because labels and their associated reputation make up a big part of corporate identity. To be successful they prefer to have their brand associated with a positive image, reputation or identity.

Onesimus, Philemon's runaway slave, also earned a reputation. One that could leave him scarred for life... that is, if he lives. Please join us for "Onesimus and the Great Re-Branding Event". We would agapē seeing you this Sunday.
