Elders' Newsletter

What a glorious day! Snow, snow and some more to come – hopefully. Ok, maybe not everyone is so excited about the advent of snow. But this week we are continuing our celebration of the Advent season – celebrating the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem many years ago. Born in such humble circumstances, what could ever become of him?

In our Christmas sermon series, 'A leader you can count on to keep his promises' and in this week's sermon titled, 'The Mark of the Ultimate Prophet – Oh the Glory!', we will be celebrating Jesus in one aspect, as he truly is. Last week's study of Ps 110 revealed to us the four roles that Jesus fills and will ultimately fulfill, that of Prophet, Priest, King and Judge. This week, I will bring a message from Deuteronomy 18:15-18, investigating Jesus as Prophet and understanding the purpose of prophesy that Jesus ultimately fulfills – Oh, the Glory!
