Elders' Newsletter

Looking forward to things in life is what makes life bearable. We excitedly anticipate vacations, graduations, retirement, getting together with close friends and many other delightful things. I even look forward to lunch every day as I get to eat and rest my mind for a few minutes.

Throughout the letter to the Thessalonians, it is clear that Paul and the Thessalonians were looking forward to something very compelling – the coming of the Lord Jesus. They were all expecting Jesus to return imminently, that is, at any moment. In my message from 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, which I've titled 'The Coming of the Lord – Ignorance is Not Bliss', we will learn why we can look forward to this blessed day. Join us in this fellowship of looking forward to something worth waiting for – Sunday at 10:30 a.m.
