

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE
Danube International Church
February 1, 2020

Purpose of this Policy: This document intends to inform you as to the personal data DIC holds, how its stored and what its used for. Please direct any questions regarding this document to danubechurchinfo1@gmail.com.

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller’s possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”).

2. Who are we?

Danube International Church is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

Danube International Church complies with its obligations under the “GDPR” by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorized access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in Hungary;
- To administer membership records;
- To manage our volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services happening at the Danube International Church;
- To use photographic images that are taken of of church activities, services and special events such as new members, baptisms, advent readings, prayer times, retreats, and other activities.

Participation in these events is considered as permission to use the photos for church use unless requested not to use them.

- To record worship services and events.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and keep you informed about diocesan events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Tax Deductible Contributions in accordance with Hungarian or EU Laws.
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a religious, humanitarian, or charitable aim provided: - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data for the Church e-Newsletter and on-line Directory only as long as you are an active member, former member or current attender of DIC and request to receive our newsletter or be included in the Directory.

Contribution information is kept for 5 years after the calendar year to which they relate. Membership information and baptism records are kept permanently.

If you request that we erase your data, we will do so promptly.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which Danube International Church holds about you;
- The right to request that the Danube International Church corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Danube International Church to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]

- The right to lodge a complaint with the EU or Hungarian governing authorities concerning GDPR compliance.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries of complaints please in the first instance contact Danube International Church email to: danubechurchinfo1@gmail.com

Danube International Church -1119 Budapest, Etele ut 55 Danube International Church, Danube Nemzetkozi Vallasi Kozossege Egyesulet