New Sermon Series starting next Sunday: What If...

We are choosing to linger on the repercussions of Easter for the next month. The grave's inability to hold Jesus captive - well - that could have super- big implications for our lives 2000 years later. Do we give death, in all its forms, too much credit? Is it inevitable that all things die? Do the rather extraordinary promises of God shape our possibilities today? Can anything be resurrected, or is it just dead bodies that are raised? If a relationship, or a dream, a community, a faith life, could be resurrected - well - that would matter to everyone of us. For the next four weeks we will be grappling with the question, "What if...?"

Just a reminder ... we now have two in-person worship services!

The Modern service
is at 9:00 A.M. in the Well.

The Traditional service
is at 11:00 A.M. in the Sanctuary.
You still can worship on line anytime
on-demand or live on Facebook at 9:00 A.M. or 11:00 A.M.
