

Communications Director

Full Time

You Are:

- Warm and friendly, collaborator, problem solver, relationship builder
- Organized, creative, strategic thinker
- An excellent communicator both orally and written
- Multi-tasking team player with high energy, strong interpersonal skills, and a positive attitude

You Will:

- Develop and or oversee processes and tools that foster effective communication flow
- Carry out the day-to-day tasks of facilitating communications/marketing
- Participate in the creation of digital and print content
- Ensure branding guidelines are maintained
- Collaborating with media team to ensure our website and social media are current and consistent
- Provide direction and leadership to staff and ministry leaders by developing marketing and communication plans that clearly define objectives, goals, strategies, and assignments ensuring all communication aligns with the mission and vision of Foothills Community Church

The Perfect Fit Is:

- You understand current marketing and social media trends
- Able to deal with ambiguity
- Dynamic, positive, kind but driven
- Creative but adaptable
- Relate to many different personalities
- Able to hold their own in a rubber band war while singing "This is Amazing Grace"
- Teachable spirit