Call To Worship

Who is this who enters the doors of our temple, who overturns the tables.

It is Jesus of Galilee, the Son of God, who comes to restore a house of hallowed prayer.

Then let us open the doors of our hearts even wider.

May the temple within us be a refuge.

May we bear the fruits of a generous spirit.

Oh Lord, take what is corrupt and withered and let it break forth in beauty.

Deacon Bryce Jones

Call to Confession

Rev. Trey Haddon

Prayer of Confession

Patient Lord, we have cluttered the "temples" of our lives with so many unnecessary things that they have blocked out your healing words of hope and mercy.

Forgive us when we have been so preoccupied that we have not listened to your words and followed your ways.

Clear away our fears and frustrations. Give us clean hearts and spirits.
These things we offer in the name of Jesus, the Christ.

Assurance of Pardon

Rejoice! You are forgiven.

Let the clutter of your life fall away and be replaced by the love of God in Christ Jesus.

Forgiven of our sins, filled with hope,
living in relationship with God and one another -
we are a new people.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

1 Corinthians 1:18-25 (NRSV)

¹⁸ For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart." ²⁰ Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹ For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. ²² For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, ²³ but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, ²⁴ but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Wild and Lone the Prophet's Voice

(Sung by the Chapel Choir Interns)

Wild and lone the prophet's voice echoes through the desert still,
Calling us to make a choice, bidding us to do God's will:
"Turn from sin and be baptized; cleanse your heart and mind and soul.
Quitting all the sins you prized, yield your life to God's control.

"Bear the fruit repentance sows: lives of justice, truth, and love.
Trust no other claim than those; set your heart on things above.
Soon the Lord will come in power, burning clean the threshing floor:
Then will flames the chaff devour; wheat alone shall fill God's store."

With such preaching stark and bold John proclaimed salvation near,
And his timeless warnings hold words of hope to all who hear.
So we dare to journey on, led by faith through ways untrod,
Till we come at last like John to behold the Lamb of God.

Lay Up Your Treasures in Heaven

(Sung by the Chapel Choir Interns)

Lay up your treasures in heaven.
O people lay up your treasures in glory.
Where nothing in this world can take them away,
O listen people hear the Master say.

Come and lay up your treasures in heaven.
O people lay up your treasures in glory.
Your treasures in this world will fade away,
But the things of the Lord will last forevermore.

Well the Lord looked out and saw the people there,
Tied up in worry and burdened with care.
He said, "Seek first the kingdom and you will see
The things that will last for eternity."

Refrain

Some people trust in their silver and gold.
They put their faith in the wealth they hold.
But fortunes will fade and kingdoms fall,
So put your trust in the Lord of all.
