Lord Keep Us Steadfast In Thy Word, arr. Jan Bender

WELCOME & LIFE TOGETHER

CHORAL INTROIT

Lord Jesus Christ

PRELUDE

*CALL to WORSHIP

God of the Sabbath, every week you gather us together for worship.

We come, carrying the joys and terrors of our everyday lives with us. Make us ready for worship. May the offerings of our hearts and our hands please and honor you.

CALL to CONFESSION

PRAYER of CONFESSION

Most Holy God, we confess that too often, we try to impress one another rather than worship you. We have spent money foolishly, acted selfishly, and sought out our own happiness and comfort rather than a world of shalom and justice. Hear our prayer. Forgive us.

ASSURANCE of PARDON

Hear the good news!

Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

He himself bore our sins in his body so that we might be dead to sin, and alive to all that is good. In and through Christ, we are forgiven! Hallelujah!

⁷ Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. ⁸ If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. 9 So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. ¹⁰ So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.

Genesis 4:1–16

¹ Now the man knew his wife Eve, and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, "I have produced a man with the help of the Lord." 2 Next she bore his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain a tiller of the ground. ³ In the course of time Cain brought to the Lord an offering of the fruit of the ground, ⁴ and Abel for his part brought of the firstlings of his flock, their fat portions. And the Lord had regard for Abel and his offering, ⁵ but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell. ⁶ The Lord said to Cain, "Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen? 7 If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is lurking at the door; its desire is for you, but you must master it."

⁸ Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let us go out to the field." And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel, and killed him. ⁹ Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He said, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?" ¹⁰ And the Lord said, "What have you done? Listen; your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground! 11 And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. 12 When you till the ground, it will no longer yield to you its strength; you will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth." ¹³ Cain said to the Lord, "My punishment is greater than I can bear! ¹⁴ Today you have driven me away from the soil, and I shall be hidden from your face; I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and anyone who meets me may kill me." ¹⁵ Then the Lord said to him, "Not so! Whoever kills Cain will suffer a sevenfold vengeance." And the Lord put a mark on Cain, so that no one who came upon him would kill him. ¹⁶ Then Cain went away from the presence of the Lord, and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Morning Has Broken arr. Arlen Clarke

Morning has broken, like the first morning, Blackbird has spoken, like the first bird; Praise for the singing, praise for the morning, Praise for the springing fresh from the Word.

Sweet the rains' new fall sunlit from heaven. Like the first dewfall on the first grass; Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden, Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning, Born of the one light Eden saw play, Praise with elation praise every morning, God's recreation of the new day.
