

Verse 1:

The day You turned my heart into gladness
The day Your light broke through
The day I never could have imagined
You made all things new

Chorus 1:

I lift my eyes up where mountains rise
Where Your mercies never run dry
I lift my heart up, this offering
Given wholly
To You my King

Verse 2

You called me out from the world I followed
To know and follow You
To find the life I never could fathom
To find all in You

Bridge

In You, in You I find my healing
Through You, through You my perfect peace
To You, to You all heaven's glory
All blessing and honor and glory to You my King
