Bible Passage of the Month:

Hebrews 12:8-10

If you are not disciplined—and everyone undergoes discipline—then you are not legitimate, not true sons and daughters at all. ⁹Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of spirits and live! ¹⁰They disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, in order that we may share in his holiness.

For all our fathers, no matter if you are a father by birth or a father of the heart. We celebrate you.

Dad's Hands

Dad's hands were king-size and strong.

With his hands, he built our home and fixed all the broken things.
Dad's hands gave generously, served humbly, and loved mom tenderly, unselfishly, completely, unendingly.

With his hand, Dad held me when I was small, steadied me when I stumbled, and guided me in the right direction.

When I needed help, I could always count on Dad's hands.
Sometimes Dad's hands corrected me, disciplined me, shielded me, rescued me.

Dad's hands protected me.

Dad's hand held mine when he walked me down the aisle. His hand gave me to my forever love, who, not surprisingly, is very much like Dad.

Dad's hands were the instruments of his great big, rugged-tender heart.

Dad's hands were strength.

Dad's hands were love.

With his hands he praised God.

And he prayed to the Father with those big hands.

Dad's hands. They were like Jesus' hands to me.

The Paris Dressmaker by Kristy Cambron

This novel is based on true accounts of Parisiennes resisting Nazi occupation in World War II. From fashion houses to the city streets comes a story of two courageous women who risked everything to fight an evil they could not abide. This historical novel is told across the span of the Nazi occupation in Paris from 1939-1943 and highlights the brave women who used everything in their power to resist darkness and restore light to their world. (Review from back cover).

Trial and Error by Robert Whitlow

Buddy Smith has built his law practice around tracking down missing children, having known the agony of being separated from a child...his own daughter. When the local clerk learns a teenager in town has gone missing, she knows that Buddy is the one to call upon to solve the case. Buddy cases all leads, hoping to reach the missing teen before it is too late. In his pursuit, he uncovers clues that could bring him closer to the girl he thought he had lost forever: his daughter! You will be kept guessing in this gripping legal drama while reminding you the power of God's restoration.

Two new Karen Kingsbury books have also arrived in the library.

Never Grow Up by Karen Kingsbury and Tyler Russell is a continuation of the Baxter Family Children Stories. This book tells a reassuring story about the joys and challenges of growing up and the reminder that – like a meteor, time never lasts long enough. Better to enjoy it while the trail of its light is still streaking across the night sky.

A Distant Shore is set in the glamorous Caribbean islands and behind the scenes in FBI headquarters. Karen Kingsbury's dramatic and suspenseful tale follows two dedicated agents who risk everything to free captive women from the ruthless and treacherous underworld of contemporary slavery. This redemptive story of "heart, adventure and second chances" will lay open the realities some women face and the grace that God bestows on all who hope in Him.
