

TEAM VALUES

WE ARE WORSHIPPERS

Our relationship with God and our desire to honor Him is the number one priority in our lives.

Our hunger for God is something we seek to ever increase.

We long to be more like Christ

We have daily rhythms of worship through Scripture reading and prayer.

We hold each other accountable to God-honoring standards of living.

WE ARE SERVANTS

We are humble.

We seek to use our talent/gift to draw attention to Christ and away from ourselves.

We put the needs of our congregation above our own stylistic preferences.

We love to help.

We see things that need to be done and do them without being asked.

We receive feedback and coaching with humility and grace.

We are humble, teachable, and open to learning from one another.

WE ARE COMMITTED

We are committed to our church family and attend church even when not scheduled to serve.

We show up on time (or early) for services when we've been scheduled.

We do not have a habit of cancelling or backing out of responsibilities at the last minute.

We have spent time practicing and know our parts before we arrive to rehearsals.

We are committed to doing everything with excellence, every single time because God deserves our best.

WE ARE ENCOURAGERS

We build each other up with our words, actions and attitudes.

We do not gossip or talk bad about team members or congregants.

We identify and train up the next generation of worship musicians, leaders and technicians and help raise them up in their craft and calling.

We give praise generously to others.

WE ARE FAMILY

We love each other and love being together.

We do fun things together.

We eat, play, laugh, cry and pray together.

We share each other's burdens and pray regularly for each other.

We respectfully disagree with each other and carefully consider other's points of view.
