

OUR CITY KIDS

ELEMENTARY – Kinder – 6th Grade

Faith is being sure of what we hope for. It is being sure of what we do not see. Hebrews 11:1 (NirV)

ACTIVITY:

Take a Snapshot

What You Need: No supplies needed

What You Do:

- Ask kids to describe how they might see things differently if their life changed in the following ways:
 - Dogs could talk.
 - The floor in our room was made of chocolate cake.
 - The Bible didn't exist.
 - You were blind. (Omit this if you have someone in your group who is visually impaired.)
 - You actually saw Jesus as you walked down the street.
 - You were a millionaire.
 - You were homeless. (Again, omit if this is insensitive to any kids in your group.)
 - You could turn yourself invisible.

What You Say:

“A floor made of cake or a world where people could randomly turn themselves invisible would be a total game-changer. Saul didn't experience any of those things, but he did encounter the GAME-CHANGER of all game-changers—Jesus! He came face to face with a man he believed was dead and discovered that He was very much alive. Life was never the same after Saul met Jesus. That's because Jesus changes the way we see everything.”

DISCUSSION:

Questions:

- If God tries to get someone's attention but they continue to ignore Him, does He ever give up? Explain.
- In what ways might a follower of Jesus view the following areas of life differently than those who don't follow Him?
 - Money
 - People
 - Sickness or death
 - Time
 - Creation
 - Happiness

- o Bible
- If you could meet Jesus the way Saul did, how do you think it would impact your faith?
- We probably won't have a "Damascus" experience like Saul did, but what are some ways God might get our attention?
