

Live Free Mid-Week Groups //

Renewed Hope (Grief Support Group):

Support others as they walk through their unique journey of grief, realizing that God is with us in the midst of our heartache; drawing closer to Him to find our peace, renewed hope and healing. Our vision is to support people through their loss, whether it be the loss of a loved one, situation, job or relationship.

Untangling Relationships and Establishing Boundaries:

This group will help you navigate old destructive patterns and establish new healthy relationship methods of interacting with those around you.

Prevailing Over Addiction for Men and Women:

Come together with a community of individuals who have triumphed over addiction in their own lives. Be accepted where you are as well as receive encouraging support while on your own journey to freedom.