Giving at Thanksgiving

FBC is partnering with The Salvation Army of Auburn and the Auburn Community to provide a free Thanksgiving feast!

Thanksgiving Day
12:00pm-2:00pm @ Gold Country Fairgrounds

Each year they have provided over 1,400 meals at the Gold Country Fairgrounds during Thanksgiving Day, which has included over 300 meals delivered to shut-ins and first responders.

If you would like to help out financially, you may write a check to FBC indicating “Salvation Army Meal” in the memo section or use a tithe envelope from the pew, marking it for Salvation Army’s Thanksgiving meal.

If you would like to volunteer your time and service for this event, you MUST sign up ahead of time with Salvation Army.

“To the Praise of His Glorious Grace, with which He has blessed us in the Beloved”

Ephesians 1:6

As a worship leader, I’ve noticed that sometimes I forget the “why?” of what I do. I pick out the songs, rehearse and I’m on my way. It can become almost mechanical and performance driven. I think we can all get into the same rut when we come to worship the Lord. We know the songs, we know the melody but we become disengaged with the heart of worship. I’m almost certain everyone who’s a Christian has battled this mindset. I don’t pretend to know how to permanently fix this mindset, but I can pass along something I’ve learned that helps me. What I’ve learned is to refocus my mind on the character of God. It’s easy to read the scriptures in such a way as to find answers or solutions for my personal problems. But I’ve found that if I want to invigorate my heart to fiery and passionate worship I have to look to who He is and what He’s done. I have to be intentional about what I think about. There are certain scriptures that I turn to that help me refocus my mind and heart on the Lord. Ephesians 1:6 is one that I’ve found to be a refreshing well of water for my soul when its become a dry dessert. It’s simple but powerful. Paul is summarizing the heart of worship for us when he says “to the praise of His glorious grace”.

Oh come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout JOYFULLY
to the ROCK of our SALVATION.
Let us come before His presence
with THANKSGIVING;
Let us shout JOYFULLY
to Him with PSALMS.
Psalm 95:1-2

When I read this verse, an explosion goes off in my heart and I'm swimming in a sea of the goodness of God. It takes the work out of worship and reinvigorates my heart to sing with passion towards the wonderful God we serve. I'm simultaneously reminded of my utter unworthiness and His absolute loveliness. I can circle that verse and remind myself "This is why I sing!" I sing because of His marvelous grace which He has displayed towards a totally unworthy sinner.

Missions Focus This Month! Angel Warrior with Seed Group

- Praise God that Jiya, Muskan and Nilam were able to come live at the shelter home.
- Praise God for Moala and her leadership, compassionate heart and willingness to serve at the shelter home.
- Praise God that He has provided Godly women on staff at our shelter home to care for our girls.
- Continue to Pray for Pastor Dave's family and Sun Grove Church.
- Pray for wisdom, unity and compassion for all the shelter home staff.
- Pray for all of our village staff that they stay healthy and that God uses them for His glory in shepherding our children.
- Pray that our India Experience Event clearly reveals our commitment to our Children.
- Pray that Jesus goes before us to complete all the requirements for a much bigger shelter home building for our girls .
