

Angier Baptist, a tight-knit and loving church community is seeking a keyboard player who is comfortable as both organist (service music and hymns) and choir accompanist. The successful candidate will be active on Sunday mornings (11:00 service) and Wednesday evenings (choir rehearsal) for the greatest part of their service. Additionally they will be asked to provide music or accompaniment for special services, weddings and funerals as they arise and seasonal programs (for instance Christmas Cantatas).

Music for services at Angier Baptist includes Prelude, meditational features, offertory specials, hymns, Postlude. Specific occasions may have other music requirements. The person selected will collaborate closely with the choir director and other instrumentalists as well as be very welcome at church staff planning sessions.

A college degree is encouraged but not required. Salary will be based on background, experience and keyboard/musical proficiency.

To be considered for this position, please submit a resume via email to angierbaptistsearch@gmail.com and note "Organist" in the subject line of the email.
