Ray Klein

My wife Ginger and I have been married for 25 years and have three children, Brianna 23, Macy 20, and Gabe 16. We moved from Charlottesville Virginia to Colorado Springs to attend Nazarene Bible College in 1996. While working my way through NBC I worked at Focus on the Family and a boys residential treatment facility. I have a Bachelor's degree in Christian Counseling and Associates in Christian Education. Additionally, I was a Taekwondo instructor for eight years and decided to go to graduate school to get my Masters in clinical counseling through Northwest Nazarene University. For the last seven years I've developed a private practice in Colorado Springs that specializes in working with individuals who struggle with sexual addiction and couples who are struggling in their marriage as result of conflict and or a lack of intimacy. I also do premarital counseling along with working with teenagers who suffer with self-harming behaviors and suicidal ideation.

Dr. Terry Lambright

Psychotherapist, Professor (NBC), Adjunct Professor (CCU and NNU), Organizational Consultant, Associate Pastor (Illinois and Colorado), Retreat speaker, Conferences, Seminars. Terry holds a PhD from University of CO-Denver, CO, MA-University of CO-COS, MM-Illinois State University, and a BA from Olivet Nazarene University.

Dr. Dan Powers

Daniel G. Powers is a professor of Bible and co-chairman of the Bible and Theology Department at Nazarene Bible College. He has also served as a Bible lecturer at European Nazarene College. He is an ordained elder in the Church of the Nazarene, serving in pastorates in California, Colorado, and in Europe in The Netherlands. He has earned degrees from Point Loma Nazarene University (B.A.), Nazarene Theological Seminary (M.Div.), and Leiden University (M.A.; Ph.D.). He and his wife Mieke reside in Colorado Springs, Colorado. They are the parents of four children who all attended and graduated from Olivet Nazarene University. They have five grandchildren.

Dr. David Wyatt

Dave and Krista Wyatt both grew up attending a Nazarene church and enjoyed all that Caravans, Bible quizzing, and summer camps had to offer - Dave in Wichita, Kansas and Krista in Upland, California. They met at MidAmerica Nazarene University and will be married 28 years in December. They have been blessed with three girls; Kendall is 21 and finishing nursing school at Point Loma Nazarene University. Emory and Avery just turned 15 and will be high school sophomore's next fall.

The Dave Wyatts have lived in Olathe, Kansas; Westminster, Colorado; Franklin, Tennessee; and recently relocated to Southlake, Texas. Dave has worked in healthcare for over 25 years and is the Chief Nursing Officer for University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center University hospitals. Krista is entering her 27th year in education and is the Lead Academic Advisor for George Washington University Online High School. When they're not at a lacrosse tournament for Avery or gymnastics meet with Emory, they like to travel; this last year slowed them down but they are making up for lost time this summer. The family also works with several North Texas-based rescue groups to foster and rehome dogs.
