JOHN 8:49

saying that you are a Samaritan, possessed?"

<sup>49</sup>"I am not possessed, Jesus, "but I honor my Father." <sup>50</sup>I am not seeking glory for myself; it is one who seeks it, and you the truth, if anyone will never see death."

<sup>52</sup>At this the Jews exclaimed, "that you are demon-possessed, and so did the prophets; one keeps your word, but <sup>53</sup>are you greater than Moses, who died, and so did the prophets?"

<sup>54</sup>Jesus replied, "If I say the truth, it means nothing. My Father, your God, is the one whom you do not know him; if I do not, I would be a liar like all the others, and keep his word. <sup>56</sup>He rejoiced at the thought of me, and was glad."

<sup>57</sup>"You are not yet faithful," said to him, "and you will die."

<sup>58</sup>"I tell you the truth, before Abraham was born, I picked up stones to stone myself, slipping away from him."

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

9 As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth. <sup>2</sup>His disciples asked him, "this man or his parents sinned, this man or his parents?"

<sup>3</sup>"Neither this man nor his parents sinned," said Jesus, "but this man was born blind." <sup>4</sup>"What can he do? Should he be displayed as a spectacle?" <sup>5</sup>Jesus said, "He must do the work of the one who is coming, so that he will not become blind."

2022 BIBLE READING PLAN

The 2022 Bible reading schedule is thematic or connective in nature. The goal is to make as many associations as possible between the different parts of Scripture while still reading individual books of the Bible from start to finish. The Psalms are individually apportioned throughout the year to increase the number of connections that can be observed and appreciated.

If you missed your paper copy in the mail, get the PDF at www.OSL.cc

"I tell you
the truth,

his sight until they sent for him. "Is this your son?" they asked him. "You say was born blind? Can he see?"

"My son," the parents answered, "he was born blind. <sup>21</sup>But when he opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age; he will speak for himself. We said this because they were saying, for already the Jews had said that anyone who acknowledged that he was born blind would be put out of the synagogue. Why his parents said this, we do not know."

"Then he summoned the man who had been blind, and he said, 'Glory to God, for I now see, and I know that he is a sinner.' " "Whether he is a sinner or not, I do not know. I was blind, but now I see."

"What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" "He told me to obey the commandments that he gave me. <sup>5</sup>For he said, 'I am the light of the world.' " "Then he told you already and why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples?"

"He insults at him and said, 'We are disciples of Moses, for we know that God spoke to Moses, and we don't even know where he is.' " "Now that is remarkable, where he comes from, yet we know that God does not listen to the godly man; nobody has ever heard of a man born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this man could do nothing," he said, "you were steeped in sin when you lecture us!" And they left him. "Now that is remarkable, where he comes from, yet we know that God does not listen to the godly man; nobody has ever heard of a man born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this man could do nothing," he said, "you were steeped in sin when you lecture us!" And they

they had thrown him out, and he said, "Do you believe in him?"

the man asked. "Tell me, what do you believe in him?"

have now seen him; in fact, I have now seen with you."

<sup>38</sup>Then the man said, "Lord, I believe," and he worshiped him.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who do not see will become blind."

Pharisees who were with him heard and asked, "What? Are we blind?"

"You were blind, you would not have said, 'We believe,' but now that you claim you can see, you say, 'We believe.' "

DEAR BROTHERS & SISTERS IN CHRIST:

The subject of the marriage of priests has been of source of great controversy between members within the church for hundreds of years. It remains so in our time as well, thanks to the numerous and widely publicized cases of sexual misconduct of priests in the Roman Catholic church. Before we look directly at Article XXIII we should understand a bit more about the history of celibacy amongst the clergy.

Throughout the history of the Church there were many attempts to make celibacy of the clergy mandatory. Although ultimately rejected by the Council of Nicaea in 325, the movement toward clerical celibacy was considered. Following centuries saw several popes decreed celibacy: Damasus I (384), Siricius (385), Innocent I (404), and Leo I (458). In addition, local councils issued edicts imposing celibacy on the clergy: Carthage in Africa (390, 401-19); Orange (441) and Tours (461) in France; and Turin (398) in Italy. By the time of Pope Leo I (who died in 461), no bishop, priest, deacon, or subdeacon could be married.

By the time of the First Lateran Council (1123), celibacy was mandated for the Western clergy. Following the Reformation in 1563, the Council of Trent stipulated that although celibacy was not a divine law, the Church had the authority to impose celibacy as a discipline. To this day, the Roman Catholic church continues to affirm the discipline of clerical celibacy.

They clarify that the church “forbid no one to marry. No one is required to take a vow of celibacy; those who do, do so voluntarily. They ‘renounce marriage’ (Matt. 19:12); no one forbids it to them.” They continue, “The Church simply elects candidates for the priesthood from among those who voluntarily renounce marriage.”

The reason for AC XXIII was the abuses which were taking place by the priests as a result of vows of celibacy. “Complaints about unchaste priests are common.... While God’s commandment is in force, and the custom of the Church is well known, impure celibacy will cause many scandals, adulteries, and other crimes that deserve punishment from just rulers. In light of all this, it is incredibly cruel that the marriage of priests is forbidden.” (AC XXIII, § 1,18).

Throughout the Bible we are reminded of the benefits of marriage for both men and women, clergy and laity. Paul includes marriage among the good qualities of a bishop (1 Tim. 3:2, 4-5, 11-12; 1 Cor. 7:25, 35; Titus 1:5-9). Paul insists that it is a doctrine of demons to prohibit marriage on account of hypocrisy or external show of holiness (1 Tim. 4:1-3), for marriage is honorable in men of every class (Heb. 13:4).

We must recognize that marriage is a wonderful blessing given by God, and that this blessing has been granted to all people. We must also take note of the fact that there is no general prohibition from God stating that His called servants are not to marry. In addition, both Christ and Paul state that the gift of celibacy is not given to all people, and that such a rule by the Church has been the cause of prevalent immorality throughout history. A vow of celibacy is not required by God for service to Him as a spiritual leader and it should not be mandated or forced on them by other human beings or religious institutions.

In Christ’s Service and Yours,
Pastor Krieg

NEW ELDER

My name is Garry Stuhr and I am proud to have been asked to join the Board of Elders of O.S.L. and to undertake the responsibilities of that position.

A little information about myself: I was raised on a farm in Waco, Nebraska, where my family attended St. John Lutheran church and school. I attended Concordia Lutheran Teachers College in Seward, Nebraska, where I met my wife Evelyn, with whom we have a son and daughter. In 43 years of church work I served three congregations: Bethlehem in Sylvan Grove, Kansas, Bethany Houston and Trinity Spring/Klein. My duties included Teacher/Youth Director, Evangelism Director, Principal, Coach, Athletic Director, DCE and finally as a Parish Administrator where my responsibilities included: Sunday Schools, Adult Bible Classes, Seniors, Service and Adult Ministries. I'm now looking forward to worshiping and serving as a volunteer at O.S.L.

The Lord's Blessings,
Garry A. Stuhr

THANK YOU!

Dear Our Savior Family –

We want to express our gratitude for the wonderful memorial service and lunch your team provided for the family and loved ones of Steve Fritsche. Everyone we interacted with was so helpful and pleasant, and truly made us feel welcome and at home.

We are thankful for you and pray for God's blessings on each of you, and best wishes for a joyous Thanksgiving and Christmas ahead.

Sincerely,
The Fritsche Family

We are so grateful to be back in church with our Lutheran family! And we want to thank everyone for their wonderful, abiding prayers for us and especially for John.

Darcie Wilbanks

To all my OSL Friends:

Many, many thanks to all of you who gave generously for the Thanksgiving Baskets, part of which some were brought to me by my elder and his wife. It was a gift that brightened my days. Thanks to you all so very much!

Arlene Wottrich

Our daughter, Dorinda Werner, wants the congregation to know that she is very thankful for all the prayers offered to God during her surgery and time of healing. Please join her now in praising God for the great blessings of healing she has received.

We also praise God for the loving support of me and my wife as we have been blessed to wade through some deep waters successfully recently. God be praised!

In addition, we were also blessed via the Holy Smokers who graciously provided one of their deliciously tasting turkeys. In a sense it is like tasting the Gospel and out of thankfulness finding it necessary to share the Good News with everyone, everyday, everywhere.

Grateful,
Dalton and Deanne Noack

8TH GRADE BAKED POTATO FUNDRAISER • Sunday, Jan 9th

Please come by after church and Sunday school and purchase your baked potato lunch to go. All proceeds will benefit the OSL 8th grade class trip to Washington DC in May. We will have baked potatoes with all the fixings and brownies boxed up and ready to eat when you get home! Free will donations. Thank you for your support!

GREETINGS OSL FAMILIES,

“Glory to God in the highest, and peace among those with whom He is pleased.” Luke 2:14

We are already looking forward to another great school year and we appreciate this time as we continue to build our OSL family. While this first month is for our current OSL families to re-enroll, you may share this information with your friends and family who would also like to be a part of our amazing community. Open enrollment begins on February 1. Tuition for the 2022-2023 academic school year has been set. Our re-enrollment opens on January 1, 2022 and we look forward to “signing” our Prekindergarten students as Eagles into the K-8 school in March and April. We also look forward to Step-Up Day on January 18 when our scholars will go to the classroom in the next grade level to meet the teacher and spend some time together in preparation for their promotion. Re-enrollment fees have not been raised. We listened to your feedback and rolled orientation fees into the price of tuition. Please note that all sibling discounts remain.

Have a blessed New Years celebration,

Kate Thoeke

Principal

Thanks, Christy!

We are going to miss Christy McKinzie as she retires from OSL. We thank her for taking such good care of all our accounts for the church and school, and we pray God blesses her future with happiness.

Welcome Donna Hebert as she fills the position!
