A Pentecost Litany

P Blessed be the Name of our God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and forever, world without end.

C Amen.

P Listen to the wind, Nicodemus! Listen to the wind! You can hear its sound; the night is full of it. Hark to it in the tops of the trees - but where it has come from and where it is going no man knows.

C Eternal God, we praise and thank you this day for the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

P The Spirit whose life-giving breath comes to us not in the fickle feelings of men, nor in the intensity of our emotions but in the changeless reality of Word and Sacrament.

C Eternal God, we praise and thank you this day for the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

P The Spirit who is the very wind of heaven, scattering like leaves the drabness and tedium of empty lives, melting the winter death of the soul, breaking open tombs of doubt and despair, so that men dead in sin may be born again to new life.

C Eternal God, we praise and thank you this day for the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

P We praise you, O God, for the glory of Pentecost. You have made the winds your messengers and the flames of fire your servants. Listen to the wind, Nicodemus! Listen to the wind! You can hear its sound; the night is full of it. Hark to it in the tops of the trees – but where it has come from and where it is going, no man knows.

C Come, Holy Spirit! Breathe upon us the breath of God that we may live forever. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson

GENESIS 11:1-9

[1] Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. [2] And as people migrated from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. [3] And they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.” And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. [4] Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be dispersed over the face of the whole earth.” [5] And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of man had built. [6] And the Lord said, “Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. And nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. [7] Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they may not understand one another’s speech.” [8] So the Lord dispersed them from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. [9] Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth. And from there the Lord dispersed them over the face of all the earth.

COME THOU, LORD, CREATOR SPIRIT

Text: Douglas C. Bowman; Music: Jeffrey H. Rickard; © 1981, The Sacred Music Press

Jubilate Choir

*Come thou, Lord, creator spirit, Tune the humble heart to thee.
From the flame of love now kindle Flame in spirits born for thee.*

*Thou the father of thy children; Thou the orb of liberty.
Thou the treasure we do cherish; Thou our hope and destiny.*

*Come thou, Lord, in all thy splendor, Let the wall of temple ring.
Seraphs’ cry allow to render Clear the anthem we would sing.*

*Thou so mighty, now recover For thyself thy majesty.
Thou, so gentle, now deliver For thyself thy people free.*

Second Reading

ACTS 2:1-21

[1] When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. [2] And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. [3] And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. [4] And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. [5] Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. [6] And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. [7] And they were amazed and astonished, saying, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? [8] And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? [9] Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, [10] Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, [11] both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God.” [12] And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” [13] But others mocking said, “They are filled with new wine.” [14] But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. [15] For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. [16] But this is what was uttered through the prophet Joel: [17] “And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; [18] even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. [19] And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; [20] the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day. [21] And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

ST. JOHN 14:23-31

[23] Jesus answered him, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. [24] Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father’s who sent me. [25] “These things I have spoken to you while I am still with you. [26] But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. [27] Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. [28] You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I will come to you.’ If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. [29] And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe. [30] I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me, [31] but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

Intercessory Prayer

P Holy Spirit, Creator who in the beginning did move on the face of the waters, through Your breath all things come to life, and without You, every living creature dies and returns to nothingness.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, Counselor, by Your inspiration men of God and prophets of old, spoke and acted faithfully and fearlessly. You did clothe them with Your power, that they might bear witness to Your Word.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, Conceiver of our Savior, You are the power who did overshadow the Virgin Mary, that she might become the mother of the Son of God; You did prepare a perfect dwelling place for Him that we might be saved.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, Consecrator, by Your action Jesus grew in wisdom and in grace, You did descend upon Him in the form of a dove, on the day of His baptism, that He might be made holy and armed with power, as a faithful witness of the Father.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, eternal God, through You Christ, our High Priest, offered Himself up as a blameless victim, that we might be delivered from the powers of death, to serve the living God.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, Defender, You did descend upon the apostles, in the form of tongues of fire, and You did speak through them when they bore witness to Christ and His resurrection, before kings and all nations.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, Comforter, through You we are born as children of God, You make us living temples of Your presence, and You intercede within us, with words that cannot be uttered.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, Giver of Life, by whom the whole body of the Church is animated, guided and sanctified, You dwell in all its members, in order to give life, one day to our mortal bodies.

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us.

P Holy Spirit, Lord and Source of Life, Giver of the seven gifts – Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, Spirit of Counsel and Strength, Spirit of Knowledge and Devotion, Spirit of Obedience to the Lord,

C Come, Holy Spirit, and enter into us. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

(Matthew 6:9-13)

C Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; For thine is the kingdom And the power and the glory, Forever and ever. Amen

Benediction

(2 Corinthians 13:14)

P The grace of our Lord ✠ Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C Amen.

Volume LXXV

June 5, 2022

Number 23

Enter reverently, meditate quietly, worship sincerely, serve Christ faithfully.

It is our heartfelt prayer that all who worships here this day may encounter the love of our Savior. According to His promise, He is here today reaching out to us in love through Word and Sacrament. If you are seeking a church home, we hope that you have found it here so that we may rejoice in serving the Lord together. If we can be of service to you or your family in any way please do not hesitate to ask.

PRAYER OF THE DAY: All the earth is full of your glory, O God; the heavens resound in praise of your name. Brooks ramble along the course you designed for them; leaves whisper of your manifold ways; fields murmur as you pass through them; in the skies the thunder sounds its applause. With countless tongues and voices creation welcomes your presence. We join that throng and lift up our chorus, "Praise God, from whom all mercies flow!" Amen

ATTENDANCE CARDS – MEMBERS (yellow) & VISITORS (blue), remember to fill out an attendance card listing all in attendance for your family. Please note any changes, otherwise you do not have to fill in the address information each week. It is appreciated if first-time visitors would include their address and phone number. Email and work numbers are helpful for inner-office needs. By filling out a card, your attendance and communing is recorded, and your comments are addressed. It is not necessary to indicate common or individual cup. Place cards in the offering plate or give to an usher on your way out. Thanks!

- The Cry-Room and the four row spans directly in front of it are reserved for parents with small children. Thank you.
- Hearing devices are available from the ushers if you need this assistance.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated next on Sunday, June 12 @ 9:30 AM. "Let a man examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup." 1 Corinthians 11:28

The Word of God teaches that the bread and wine of the Sacrament are the true Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. This precious gift of God's grace is to be received in a sense of reverent awe after careful self-examination. The Bible defines that self-examination as a personal recognition of the real presence of Christ's Body and Blood in the Sacrament, and a repentant acknowledgment of my own sinfulness recognizing my absolute dependence upon Christ as the only source of forgiveness for my sin. Scripture further instructs that our participation in Christ's Body and Blood together is the most profound and powerful way for Christians to acknowledge their unity in the faith. That is to say, when we share in the Body and Blood of Jesus at this altar, we are thereby indicating our common commitment to all of the doctrines of God's Word as they are taught in this congregation. Because of these Biblical convictions, we respectfully request that visitors, who wish to join us in receiving the Body and Blood of Christ and thereby identify with our confession of Bible truth, speak with one of our pastors before attending the Lord's Supper.

Hebrews: This document is profound in substance and rich in significance. It was the latest of the twenty-seven books to be formally recognized by the early church as a part of God's Word. Every book of the Bible is self-authenticating in that it speaks with the inherent authority and power of God. (Pastor White - Bible Class Room)

Lutheran Confessions: Our Lutheran Confessions were developed out of a genuine concern with false teachings obscuring the glory and merit of our Savior. These unconditional affirmations are as understandable and poignant today as when they were written. Learn their history and development, as well as their relevance in the daily life of a Christian. Through discussion, you will see how others are asking the same questions and how Scripture offers solid, reliable answers. (James Kriegel, C101)

Bethel Bible Series: We are proud to be Christians following in the footsteps of Martin Luther's teachings of Scripture alone, grace alone, and faith alone through Christ alone. Our focus is based solely on the Bible. It alone is our rule and guide. The Bethel class is now studying the Old Testament which serves as a foundation for studying the New Testament. If you have never studied the Bible or would like to sharpen or improve your overall knowledge level then please consider joining the Bethel Class. (Herb Peterson, C102)

Women's Bible Study: We are studying the book of James; we'll see what he was inspired to write about God's goodness, grace, and truth as revealed in Jesus. Come for time in the Word and in fellowship with your sisters in Christ! (Family Room, Church)

Applying Scripture to Current Events: This class for young adults will focus on today's headlines and current events and discuss these topics in light of scripture and how the verses covered each week apply to everyday life. (Adam White, C106)
