

LifeGroup Questions for week of January 10, 2021

"Longing for the Word of God"

1. What are the differences between studying the Bible to know it better vs studying the Bible to know Jesus better?
2. Define Biblical love & explain what it practically looks like in the midst of this group? In your marriage? At our church? With your neighbors? With your enemies? What barriers do we let prevent us from loving one another?
3. Since the Word is the source of all spiritual life, how should that impact our life and ministry?
4. How does Verse 25 encourage the believer ("The Word of the Lord endures forever")?
5. What hinders our desire for the Bible? What are common things that we build our loves upon instead of the Scripture?
