THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

As we continue our series, “New Year’s ReSOULutions” this morning, we will give our attention to the discipline of Scripture Reading. It is an interesting task to examine all that Scripture has to say about itself. We are told in 2 Timothy 3:16-17, “All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.” We are further told in Hebrews 4:12, “For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of the soul and of the spirit, of the joints and the marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.”

The list of Scripture passages that relate to Scripture could go on and on. However, this morning we will consider Psalm 19:7-10. In these four short verses, I can count at least three separate sermons I could preach. First, we could consider the titles given to scripture in the passage: the Law, the testimony, the precepts, the commandments, fear, and the rules. Each of these titles shed a little light on the character and nature of our Bible. Each of them show us various facets of what we have.

“It is an interesting task to examine all that Scripture has to say about itself.”

A second sermon could be related to the qualities of God’s word that we are shown. We are told that the word of God is perfect, sure, right, pure, clean, enduring, true, righteous, and sweet. If we could truly comprehend the beauty of God’s word, no one would have to remind us to read it. We would long for it as we long for clean, pure air.

Alas, I cannot preach three sermons in one morning. So, today we will focus on the benefits of God’s word for the believer. We will see that the Word of God revives the soul. The word of God gives wisdom. The word of God brings rejoicing. And, the word of God enlightens the eyes. God’s word at work in our lives will always produce fruit.

Our goal this morning is simple. We want you to fall more in love with God’s word than ever before. We want you to see that in the word of God you will find true life, true meaning, and true purpose. To neglect the word of God is to neglect the very thing that will bring fulfillment to your life.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL
