THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

When you think of greatness, what comes to mind? Unfortunately, our ideas of greatness often involve being superior to someone else. We want to be the boss or the leader. We want to be the ones in control. Maybe we would go so far as saying that we want others to serve us.

We have all had the unfortunate experience of serving under a boss or a leader who is only in it for themselves. They will push to achieve their own goals at all costs. They give little thought to the impact on those around them. In the end, they may achieve their goals, but the wake of damage that is left behind is sad.

“Today, we will see Jesus call us to a different sort of greatness. Jesus will make it clear that greatness does not come from having others serve you or your agenda. Greatness is found in helping others become all they can be. This does not mean that we cannot have goals or directions for the organizations we lead. It simply means that we must seek to develop others as we pursue such goals.”

Today, we will see Jesus call us to a different sort of greatness. Jesus will make it clear that greatness does not come from having others serve you or your agenda. Greatness is found in helping others become all they can be. This does not mean that we cannot have goals or directions for the organizations we lead. It simply means that we must seek to develop others as we pursue such goals.

Here is a challenge. Look at those around you. How are you building them up? How are you helping them to develop into the person that God has called them to be? In what way are you helping them to achieve their goals? I once heard it said, “You can have anything you want in this world, so long as you are willing to help others get what they want.” Obviously, such a statement has limitations, but what a great focus in life: I want to help you fulfill all of your potential and goals. If that is our focus, we will truly be a blessing to others.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL

Find a way to serve someone else this week. Maybe at work, at home, or in the community. Simply seek to be a blessing without looking for anything in return.
