

for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. Scripture, as we know, timeless truth. That means that even in time of

be exercising your attitude of gratitude!

pandemic, we give thanks to God. Be sure to With the release of the new Temple resources

11/1, the HF App has stopped being updated. It has served the ministry well, but now with the TBC App, all HF functionality has Media Library. All livestream messages are archived in the library and can be accessed through the app or on the website. Please call/ text/ email Pastor Steve with any questions. >New email is pastorsteve@tbcdecatur.com<

Our Sunday School series this month is taken via the video chat on Sunday Mornings are complemented by watching the short videos on RightNow Media during the week. You can easily find the Youth Series by navigating on the RightNow app or website from:

WEDNESDAY NIGHT Livestream

esus

- Jesus is the steady source you're seeking.

Sunday School Video Chat

Live on Purpose - Every day is a gift from God

Transcend the Journey - Following Jesus isn't about drawing attention to ourselves, but

Live Extraordinary, Not Ordinary - We should live extraordinary, not comfortable, lives.

Saturday, 11/28 - Family Trivia Night-7p-9p

The Man, the Mediator, the Message

Students will learn that Jesus is our Mediator before God the Father so they will feel free to boldly come to God for forgiveness when they

This lesson was the second lesson in a four-

part series called "Jesus: Prophet, Priest, King,

Intercessor, Mediator, Man, Eternal God,

Unchanging King, and So Much More Than You

It was all about Jesus as our Mediator.

Students learned that a mediator is one who reconciles or brings together those who were once separated. Students were reminded that Jesus was human, and thus subject to all the temptations and weaknesses that we face. He was a man and still 100% God. However, He never sinned. Instead of taking out vengeance on us, Jesus deals gently with us and is ready to forgive. Students learned that Jesus

Our relationship with God has been fractured by our sin. We have no way of getting back to God except through Jesus' one perfect

2. Jesus intercedes daily for us before the Satan accuses us before the Father, Jesus is there on our behalf declaring that our sins

Students were encouraged to come boldly reconciliation when they sin. They were also challenged to readjust their vision of God from one who is vindictive and angry to one who is

This week, think about how you primarily view

God. Do you see Him as angry and disappointed? Or do you see Him as compassionate and forgiving? When you sin, boldly go to Jesus and ask for forgiveness, knowing that He is ready and waiting to forgive. Think about how your response toward your student's disobedience or failure might be influencing their view of God. Ask for grace to Students will learn that Jesus is eternal and unchanging and will be challenged to trust Him

Key Thought: Jesus is the steady source you're

This lesson was the third lesson in a four-part series called "Jesus: Prophet, Priest, King,

Intercessor, Mediator, Man, Eternal God,

Unchanging King, and So Much More Than You

Ever Thought." Throughout this series, we have been exploring who Jesus is. This week, your teen learned about the importance of Jesus as

Life can be unsteady and confusing sometimes,

and we all look for something to steady us,

whether that is a significant other, money, a position of influence, or a job. Ultimately all of these things fail us. Your teen learned two specific characteristics of Jesus that can be a

Jesus has always existed, even before creation began. Because He is outside of time, He can see both our beginning and our ending. His

More than just eternal, Jesus is trustworthy because He does not change. The Bible reveals

Him to be a good God. He can be trusted to do

Your teen was challenged to pay attention to his/her actions and see what they tell him/her about who, or what, he/she trusts. Also, your acknowledging God's eternal presence in their lives would impact his/her choices and decisions, to see how it can bring a sense of Consider where you place your trust. Are you looking to money, influence, or another person to be the steadying influence in your life? This week, pay attention to where you are putting your trust. Talk with your teen about how each of you can trust in the eternal, unchanging

Students will understand that Jesus is superior to all others and will be challenged to stand in awe of Him and express appreciation for Him

This lesson was the fourth lesson in a four-part series called "Jesus: Prophet, Priest, King,

Intercessor, Mediator, Man, Eternal God,

Unchanging King, and So Much More Than You

Ever Thought." Throughout this series, we have been exploring who Jesus is. This week, your

The Firstborn of Creation - Not "born

The Creator – Not a created being but the

The Sustainer – Not only the Creator but

The Head of the Church – He is the top

The Firstborn from the Dead – The ruler

The Fullness of God – He is 100% God (and

The Savior – He is the only One Who can save you from your sin and restore your

Each of these truths is a reason to worship Him as Lord and King. Your teen was given a card with all of these on it and challenged to express his/her appreciation to Jesus each time he/she prays. Consider taking that challenge with your teen and pray together, expressing appreciation for Jesus! Go to the following link https://teachersource.wol.org/resource/SBS20/20-1/

for an encouraging video about Jesus:

relationship with God the Father.

over our greatest enemies: sin and death.

the One Who holds creation together.

teen learned several truths about Jesus.

God – He is the eternal God.

first" but the preeminent One.

Creator of all.

100% Man)!

Key Thought: There ain't nobody like Him!

Colossians 1:18

was challenged to consider how solid, steadying influence in his/her life.

Jesus is eternal.

wisdom is above all others.

Jesus is unchanging.

what is right.

stability.

God.

Jesus is...

Objective:

daily.

Jesus is...

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

rank.

Lesson Summary:

a steadying influence in their lives.

to be their steady source of strength.

John 8:58

respond like Jesus.

Steady Now

Objective:

seeking.

Lesson Summary:

just, but loving, and always ready to forgive.

God to seek forgiveness

Even after salvation, we still sin. When mediates for us in two ways:

sacrifice on the cross.

have already been paid for.

Father.

1. Jesus gives us a path to eternal life.

Key Thought: Not rejected, but reconciled.

O COM

Hebrews 4:16

Make it Count - Every day can count for something as a follower of Jesus.

instead it's about glorifying God and serving others, seize those opportunities.

and packed with potential to bless him and

The Man, the Mediator, the Message

- Not rejected, but reconciled.

- There ain't nobody like Him!

THIS IS

THE DAY

TIM TEBOW

others in humility.

THINGS

November:

Objective:

Lesson Summary:

Ever Thought."

sin.

Steady Now

Jesus is ...

Libraries > Temple Baptist

from RightNow Media. The discussion we have been integrated into the church app. One additional feature that we now have is the HF