

Thanksgiving Week

I'm always finding new riches in Jesus and never tire of returning time and again to his presence; to images of Jesus; to how he behaves in the Gospels; to encountering his presence in history. It is a beautiful relationship that impels you to grow, because with him you cannot be anyone other than your true self. You know yourself but you are known even more fully by Jesus. It is a completely transparent relationship. For me, personally, one of the loveliest experiences of all is meeting Jesus through prayer inspired by the Gospels. As one grows older, prayer becomes increasingly contemplative.

Excerpted from Walking with Ignatius: In conversation with Darío Menor by Arturo Sosa, Superior General of the Society of Jesus (p.32)

Luke 18:35-43

What is it like for me to be needy before Jesus?

Luke 19:1-10

My neediness brings me closer to Jesus. Colloquy over dinner.

Luke 19:11-28

Where does my fear come from? Colloquy with the Giver.

Luke 19:41-44

To weep is to feel empathy, to suffer with. Do I see this in my life?

Luke 19:45-48

The religious people distort God's image. Talk with Jesus about his Father.