

CALVARY CORVALLIS MISSIONS

REQUIREMENTS FOR SENDING

It is the desire of our church that members going to the mission field be 'well sent'. To that end we ask that applicants for long-term missions:

1. Have a demonstrated understanding and maturity level in the fundamentals of the faith and doctrine.
2. Organize a practical support team made up of fellow believers to care and advocate for the missionary here at home while they are in the field. Examples can be provided by contacting the Missions Team.
3. Be part of a house church.
4. Not be released to go without raising their full support.
5. Send regular progress reports (weekly) to the designated Missions Team member while raising their support.
6. Keep the body informed of their work/mission regularly (at least monthly) while on the field.
7. Coordinate visits home with the Missions Team.
8. Keep the Missions Team fully informed of issues that affect their work, both positive and negative, from a ministry stand point and a personal stand point, including but not limited to financial support, ministry/personal/family issues, visa issues, health, etc.
9. Prior to leaving, consider being involved in working with local international students.
