

Proverbs - Living with Open Hands

6/30/19

The book of Proverbs is meant to challenge God's people to live intentionally. Take a moment to read Proverbs 3:5-6. How does this call God's people to live with purpose?

What comes to your mind when you think of generosity? Is generosity only about money?

Take a look at some examples of a generous spirit from Proverbs 11:23-25. What are the characteristics of a generous person, a person who lives with open hands?

Jesus taught His disciples about eternal priorities on several occasions. What is Jesus saying as you look at Matthew 6:19-21 and Luke 12:15-21?

How do you respond to Jim Elliot's statement: "He is no fool who gives up what he cannot keep gain that which he can never lose"? How does this challenge you?