Responses to our Whispering Cedars ministry announcement:

"My dear friends, hurrah! I am so excited for all that God is directing you into, and I can't think of anyone better to bring rest, healing and counsel to the saints. So rejoicing over everything."
~Deb (Missionary)

"I am glad that the desire is growing to offer respite and space for healing for those in ministry. Between church ministry in the US and a variety of ministries in Germany, we've seen and also had the need for safe places and people to talk with about the hard things. Thank you for choosing to be that space for others!"
~Elissa (Missionary in Berlin, Germany)

The need for caring for those in Christian ministry is great. Good soul care is essential for fulfilling God's call on your life. How can a pastor or missionary effectively minister if they are stressed out or burned out? Our desire is to help alleviate some of the stress and burnout by providing a safe place for God's servants to rest, relax, refresh, and restore their souls.

We are so grateful to be part of the ministry of ACI, Int. We invite you to become financial partners with ACI, Int. for the ministry of Whispering Cedars. Would you prayerfully consider becoming a financial partner today? You can donate by going to aciint.org/giving.

We are grateful for you. Thank you for being on this journey with us. We cannot do what God has called to do without your prayers and financial partnership. You are a blessing to us.
