FEBRUARY/MARCH 2018

“And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, there shall come out of Sion the Deliverer and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.” (Romans 11:26)

It is exciting to see the phrase, “And so all Israel shall be saved.” We must realize, however, that verse 25 deals with the present redemption of the gentiles, and verse 26 deals with the prophetic restoration of Israel. Our Lord must come back for the church, after which the tribulation and “the time of Jacob’s trouble” will take place, and much of the Jewish population will be killed. Those Jews that will come out of tribulation and enter into the millennium will “all” be saved. Wouldn’t it be wonderful if more of them would be saved during this church age.

In this new year of 2018, I have had the privilege of being in some churches that have supported me over the years. I have also had the opportunity to be in some churches near home that have expressed a desire to know more about how IBJM can help their local church to reach lost Jewish people in their local area and around the world. I look forward to the possibility of working with them more closely in the days ahead.

Last week, I was in a small church in north Georgia for the first time. The people there were very receptive to the Word of God and to the challenge that was presented to them concerning Jewish missions. In central Florida, I spent several days at Landmark Baptist College and Landmark Baptist Church. While I was there, I preached in chapel, spoke to the students concerning the Everlasting Nation Ministries of IBJM, and preached in the Wednesday night service of the church. I was wonderfully blessed to have the opportunity to speak to these folks about winning Jews to Christ. They are living in the central part of Florida where the Jewish population is approximately 150,000.

Pray with me that the Lord will raise up some of those college students, along with some of the church folk, by giving them a burden for God’s chosen people. It would be great to see some of them come to the annual Four Day Focus on Jewish Missions which will be held June 18-21. This meeting is designed for pastors, local church leaders, and those with personal contacts among the Jewish people. Please pray that these students will know and do the will of God for their lives. If you are interested in knowing more, you can call the IBJM office at (423) 876-8150 and request the brochure entitled, “The Annual Four-Day Focus on Jewish Missions.” You will be blessed and challenged by this conference.

I am looking forward to the meetings that I have scheduled for the rest of 2018. I will be in churches, colleges, camp meetings, conferences, etc. I do have some dates that I would like to fill, especially during the summer months. If I can be a help to you and your church, please let me know. I would love to do some “Christ in the Passover” demonstrations, “Thank God for Israel” services, and Jewish Evangelism seminars as the Lord leads. As always, I can be reached at (423) 503-2384, or you can email me at tmcquirt@ibjm.org

Shalom Aleichem,
